CONSTITUTION
OF
THE AMERICAN LEGION
DEPARTMENT OF FLORIDA, INC.

As adopted at the Department Convention of 1946
and Amended at Department Conventions through 2023

PREAMBLE

For God and Country, we associate ourselves together for the following purposes:

To uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America; to maintain law and order; to foster and perpetuate a one hundred percent Americanism; to preserve the memories and incidents of our associations in all wars; to inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, state and nation; to combat the autocracy of both the classes and the masses; to make right the master of might; to promote peace and goodwill on earth; to safeguard and transmit to posterity the principles of justice, freedom and democracy; to consecrate and sanctify our comradeship by our devotion to mutual helpfulness.

ARTICLE I NAME

1. The name of this organization shall be The American Legion, Department of Florida, Inc.

ARTICLE II
NATURE AND PURPOSE

1. The objects and purposes of this Department shall be to promote the principles and policies set forth in the foregoing Preamble and the National Constitution of The American Legion.
2. The American Legion is a civilian organization; membership therein does not affect or increase liability for military or police service. Rank does not exist in the Legion; no member shall be addressed by his military or naval title in any convention or meeting of The American Legion.
3. While requiring all members of the organization to perform their full duty as a citizen according to their own conscience and understanding, the organization shall be non-partisan in politics, and shall not be used for the dissemination of partisan principles.

ARTICLE III
MEMBERSHIP

1. Eligibility for membership in the Department shall be governed by the provisions of the National Constitution of The American Legion, relating thereto.
2. There shall be no form or class of membership except an active membership, and dues shall be paid annually or for life.

ARTICLE IV
DEPARTMENT ORGANIZATION

1. The American Legion, Department of Florida, Inc., is a constituent part of and subordinate to The American Legion, a federal corporation organized by Act of Congress, and is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of Florida. The Department is comprised of and its jurisdiction extends to the whole of the State of Florida.
2. The Department shall be divided into areas, districts, and posts organized and officered as hereinafter provided.
3. The administrative and executive power shall be vested in the Department Executive Committee, and the Department shall be officered as hereinafter provided.

4. There shall be one (1) Annual Department Convention which shall be the legislative body of the Department. There may be special conventions called in the manner hereinafter provided.
5. There shall be a Department Headquarters maintained in the present location of Orange County, Florida.
6. There shall be such standing Commissions and Committees as shall be provided in the Department By-Laws, membership of which shall be appointed as prescribed in the Department By-Laws.
7. By-Laws shall be adopted for the further government and regulation of the Department, not inconsistent with this Constitution.
8. There shall be at least one (1) or more Department Conferences between Annual Department Conventions, the date and place to be decided by the Department's Time and Place Committee.

ARTICLE V DEPARTMENT CONVENTION

1. An Annual Department Convention shall be held at a time and place to be fixed by vote of a preceding convention, or in the event the preceding convention does not fix a time and place, or if the convention city withdraws its invitation to hold the convention, or if it becomes impractical for any reason to hold the convention at the time or place designated, then such time and place shall be fixed by the Department Executive Committee.
2. In the event it becomes impractical because of travel restrictions lawfully imposed by the State or National Government to hold the Annual Department Convention at the time or place designated, or if by lawful authority of the State or National Government attendance at the convention would be limited to less than the number of authorized delegates, then the place, the time, and the manner, of holding the Annual Department Convention during such emergency shall be determined by the Department Executive Committee.
3. The Annual Department Convention shall have all of the administrative and legislative powers of the Department.
4. A Department Convention shall be comprised of delegates and alternates from each chartered Post of The American Legion of the Department of Florida. Each Post shall be entitled to two (2) delegates and two (2) alternates, and to one (1) additional delegate and alternate for each additional one hundred (100) members or fraction thereof over and above one hundred (100) members; and provided that the per capita membership fee is paid fifteen (15) days prior to a Department Convention. Alternate delegates shall be recognized in the numerical order certified.
5. Each delegate to a Department Convention shall be entitled to one (1) vote. The vote of any delegate absent and not represented by an alternate shall be cast by the majority of the delegates present from the Post. Alternates shall have the privileges of delegates except that of voting.
6. Each member of the Department Executive Committee shall be a delegate to any Department Convention during their term of office, under the same conditions as applied to the other delegates. Each Past Department Commander shall be a delegate for life to all Department Conventions, under the same conditions as applied to all other delegates, provided they are in good standing in a Post of The American Legion, Department of Florida, and present on the floor of a Department Convention.
7. Voting for all elected Department Officers shall be done on the last day of the Annual Department Convention by ballot, able to be scanned with certified electronic ballot scanning machines provided by a Florida county, Supervisor of Elections Office for the County where the election is held. If the Supervisor of Elections Office is unable to provide this service, then voting shall be done on the floor of the Annual Department Convention by roll call of Posts. Should the first ballot, whether electronic or by floor roll call of Posts, not result in a candidate receiving a majority of votes cast (defined as at least fifty percent (50%) plus one (1) of the votes cast), then a second vote for that office shall proceed by a floor roll call vote of Post as soon as practical after determining that no candidate was elected to the position to be filled. This process will repeat until a candidate is elected. The order of elections in a floor roll call vote of Posts shall be: Department Sergeant-at-Arms, Department Chaplain, Department Historian, Alternate National Executive Committee Member, National Executive Committee Member, Department Vice Commander, and Department Commander. Each delegate or alternate delegate, if the delegate is not available to vote shall cast one (1) ballot. If the ballot is electronic, the delegate or alternate, shall complete their ballot and provide said ballot to the Chairperson of the Post delegation. The Chairperson and up to one other Legionnaire of the Chairperson's choosing, shall cast the votes of the Post delegation. Should the vote be a floor roll call vote, the Chairperson of the Post delegation, or their designee, shall stand at a provided microphone when called upon, announce the Post, Post number, and the number of votes cast for each candidate in the election. The Post voting order in a floor roll call vote shall be determined by random selection.

8. The Annual Department Convention shall be the final judge of the election and qualification of the delegates.

9. A quorum shall exist at a Department Convention when thirty (30) percent of the qualified Posts are represented as provided above.

10. The Department Executive Committee, at the first Mid-Year meeting, shall adopt or amend the Rules of Procedure and governance of all Department Conventions, provided, however, the Convention rules that are contained within the Department Constitution and/or By-Laws may not be changed by this action.

11. A special convention may be held upon joint call, in writing, by the Department Commander and at least two (2) of the Area Commanders or by a majority of District Commanders, or by a majority of the Department Executive Committee members, or by a majority of the Posts. The same representation of Posts shall be required at a special convention to constitute a quorum as is required at the Annual Department Convention. No business shall be transacted at such special conventions except as set forth in the call thereto.

ARTICLE VI DEPARTMENT OFFICERS

1. The Department officers shall be:

Department Commander
Department First Vice Commander
Department Second Vice Commander This amendment and restatement of the Consitution rescinds the Amendment dated June 18, 2022, terminating the 2nd Vice Commander position)
Department Adjutant
National Executive Committee Member
Alternate National Executive Committee Member
Department Finance Officer
Department Judge Advocate
Department Assistant Judge Advocate
Department Historian
Department Chaplain
Department Sergeant-At-Arms and Department Service Officer

2. Department Officers shall be elected at each Annual Department Convention, except that the Department Commander shall appoint a Department Finance Officer, Department Judge Advocate, and Department Assistant Judge Advocate to be ratified by the Department Executive Committee. The Department Adjutant and Department Service Officer shall be appointed by and serve at the will of the Department Executive Committee.

3. No person shall be eligible to hold the office of Department Commander, Department First Vice Commander, or Department 2nd Vice Commander for more than one elected term.

4. In case of the resignation, death, suspension or removal from office of the Department Commander, the current Department First Vice Commander shall immediately take office as Acting Department Commander. As this is an acting position, until the next Annual Department Convention, the Acting Commander will be eligible for nomination and election to the office of Department Commander at a future Annual Department Convention. The Department Second Vice Commander shall remain in their current office. The Position of Department First Vice Commander shall be left vacant until the next Annual Department Convention. In the case of a vacancy in the office of any Department Vice Commander, the position shall be left unfilled until the next Department Convention.

5. There shall be a National Executive Committee Member and an Alternate National Executive Committee Member elected at each Annual Department Convention held in even numbered years and they shall serve two-year term. Their term of office shall commence immediately upon the adjournment of the National Convention, next ensuing after their election. Should the National Executive Committee Member be unable to perform the duties of their office, the Alternate National Executive Committee Member shall perform those duties during the period of disability with all rights and privileges of the office. Should the National Executive Committee Member vacate their office, for any reason, before the expiration of the term of their office, the Alternate National Executive Committee Member shall succeed to this office for the remainder of the term. If the Alternate National Executive Committee Member is unable to accept or declines this position, the vacancy shall be filled by the appointment of the most senior (year served) Past Department Commander who is willing and able to accept the appointment. Should the office of the Alternate National Executive Committee Member be vacant, for any reason, the vacancy shall be filled by the appointment of the most senior (year served) Past Department Commander that is willing and able to accept such appointment. Should the National Executive Committee Member be unable to assume their office at the adjournment of the next ensuing National Convention, the Alternate National Executive Committee Member-Elect shall assume this office, and the vacancy in the office of Alternate National Executive Committee Member shall be filled as specified above.

6. Department Officers shall be subject to trial, discipline, suspension, removal from office, or expulsion, as provided in the Department By-Laws.

7. The Department Executive Committee shall provide authorization for the appointment, employment, and compensation of additional subordinate officers and employees as may be needed for the efficient administration of the affairs of the Department, to include, but not be limited to, a Department Assistant Adjutant. The Department Assistant Adjutant shall be a member of The American Legion, Department of Florida. The Department Assistant Adjutant shall be responsible directly to, serve as a subordinate of, and serve at the pleasure of the Department Adjutant. They shall perform such duties as are assigned by the Department Adjutant. The Department Assistant Adjutant shall represent and act for the Department Adjutant when required. All of said individuals shall be selected and employed by the Department Adjutant.

8. In the event that any Department Commander, or Department Vice Commander, shall absent themselves from the State of Florida for a period exceeding sixty (60) days, they shall submit their resignation from such office within a reasonable time after their departure from the state, and upon their failure or refusal to do so, such office shall be declared vacant and the vacancy filled, as provided in Article VII, Section 9, of this Constitution.

9. Only the Department Officers, Area Commanders, the Department Assistant Adjutant, and the Department Membership Chairperson, while serving in office, are authorized to wear the official white Department cap with gold lettering designating their particular office.

ARTICLE VII

DEPARTMENT EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

1. Between Annual Department Conventions the executive power of the Department shall be vested in the Department Executive Committee, which shall consist of the following:

- Department Commander
- Department First Vice Commander
- Department Second Vice Commander
- Area Commanders (6)
- District Commanders (16)
- District First Vice Commanders (16)
- National Executive Committee Member
- Department Chaplain
- Department Historian
- Department Sergeant-At-Arms
- Immediate Five (5) Past Department Commanders
- Past National Commanders

2. The Department Adjutant, Department Assistant Adjutant, Department Service Officer, Department Finance Officer, Department Judge Advocate, and Department Assistant Judge Advocate shall be non-voting members of the Department Executive Committee.

3. The Alternate National Executive Committee Member shall be a non-voting member of the Department Executive Committee. In the absence of the National Executive Committee Member, The Alternate National Executive Committee Member will become a voting member.

4. Any Past National Commander who was National Commander while a member of the Department of Florida and is in good standing in their respective Post, shall be a voting member of the Department Executive Committee for life.

5. The immediate five (5) Past Department Commanders, who have served as a Department Commander in the Department of Florida and remain a member in good standing in a Florida post shall serve as voting members of the Department Executive Committee. If any of the immediate five (5) Past Department Commanders holds a voting position on the Department Executive Committee, then the next subsequent Past Department Commander shall become one of the five (5) Past Department Commanders that are a voting member of the Department Executive Committee.
6. The Department Executive Committee shall be empowered to transact all essential business of the Department of Florida not otherwise provided for in this Constitution and the Department By-laws. This authority includes the power to adopt resolutions in the name of The American Legion, Department of Florida, between Annual Department Conventions, when such adoption is necessary due to the timing of the resolution's intent, and when waiting until the next Annual Department Convention would make adoption by that Convention meaningless; provided however, no resolution shall be adopted under this provision which conflicts with the action taken on any resolution by a prior National or Department Convention.
7. The Department Executive Committee shall hear and act on appeals in cases of reprimand, suspension, removal, or expulsion of Post Officers and members of Posts, and it shall act as a trial court in the hearing and trial of charges against Department Officers, Area Commanders, District Commanders, and District Vice Commanders, as provided in this Constitution or the Department By-Laws.
8. In cases of emergency, as provided elsewhere in this Constitution, the Department Executive Committee may provide a method and a procedure for a special convention in lieu of the regular Annual Department Convention to elect Officers, to make proposals for legislative enactment, to adopt and promulgate essential programs, and to enunciate and proclaim matters of policy.
9. The Department Executive Committee shall have the power to fill vacancies in any Department office or in the Department Executive Committee until the next Department Convention, except as is herein otherwise provided; provided that any such vacancy occurring between meetings of the Department Executive Committee may be filled by appointment by the Department Commander subject to ratification by the Department Executive Committee to occur within 30 days of said appointment. Such ratification may be conducted utilizing polling in accordance with The American Legion, Department of Florida Constitution, Article II, Section 8. If the Department Executive Committee disapproves the appointment by the Department Commander, the Department Executive Committee shall fill the vacancy until the next Convention.
10. The Department Executive Committee shall meet within 24 hours after the Department Officers have taken office, immediately preceding the holding of a Department Convention, regular or special, and meet at such other times as the By-Laws may provide.
11. The Chairpersons of the Standing Commissions and Committees of the Department shall be ex-officio non-voting members of the Department Executive Committee, with the privilege of speaking on matters pertaining to their respective committees. They shall not be counted in constituting a quorum.
12. The Department Executive Committee, after due notice and a hearing, may suspend or revoke a Post charter by following the National Uniform Code of Procedure for revocation, cancellation or suspension of a Post charter, as adopted by the National Executive Committee.
13. Members of the Department Executive Committee shall be subject to charges and trials for the same causes and in the same manner as Department Officers are charged and tried, and in the event a charge is sustained, they may be deprived of their status and privileges. They shall have the same right of appeal to a Department Convention as is provided for Department Officers.
14. Twenty-five (25) members of the Department Executive Committee shall constitute a quorum.

ARTICLE VIII AREA ORGANIZATION

1. There shall be areas known as the Western Area, the Northern Area, the Eastern Area, the Central Area, the Southwestern Area, and the Southern Area.
2. The Western Area shall be comprised of the 1st and 2nd Districts.
3. The Northern Area shall be comprised of the 3rd, 4th, 5th and 17th Districts.
4. The Eastern Area shall be comprised of the 6th and 12th Districts.
5. The Central Area shall be comprised of the 7th, 15th and 16th Districts.
6. The Southwestern Area shall be comprised of the 8th and 13th Districts.

7. The Southern Area shall be comprised of the 9th, 11th and 14th Districts.
8. In each Area, there shall be an Area Commander elected at each Annual Department Convention, who shall take office at the same time as the Department Commander. Area Commanders shall serve without seniority. Area Commanders shall be members in good standing of a Post in the Area for which they are elected. They shall be nominated and elected at a caucus of Posts within said Area held during the Annual Department Convention.
9. The Area Commanders shall have such authority and perform such duties as shall be prescribed in the Department Constitution and By-Laws.
10. An Area Conference may be held on the written call of the Department Commander, or Area Commander or upon the written request of the majority of the District Commanders in the Area. Such Conference shall be non-legislative, and no action shall be taken thereat that invades the jurisdiction of the Department or any Post.
11. Each Area Commander shall have the authority to establish committees and appoint Chairpersons to those Committees. At a minimum, each Area should establish a Boys State Committee, Oratorical Committee, Baseball Committee and an American Legion Riders Committee.
12. In the event that any Area Commander shall absent themselves from the State of Florida for a period exceeding sixty (60) days, they shall submit their resignation from such office within a reasonable time after their departure from the state, and upon their failure or refusal to do so, such office shall be declared vacant and the vacancy filled, as provided in Article VII, Section 9, of this Constitution.
13. Area Commanders shall be subject to trial, discipline, suspension, removal from office, or expulsion, as provided in the Department By-Laws.

ARTICLE IX DISTRICT ORGANIZATION

1. The Department shall be divided into Districts bounded as follows:
 - District 1. This District shall be comprised of the following Counties: Bay, Escambia, Holmes, Okaloosa, Santa Rosa, Walton and Washington.
 - District 2. This District shall be comprised of the following Counties: Calhoun, Franklin, Gadsden, Gulf, Jackson, Leon, Liberty and Wakulla.
 - District 3. This District shall be comprised of the following Counties: Baker, Columbia, Dixie, Hamilton, Jefferson, Lafayette, Madison, Suwannee and Taylor.

 - District 5. This District shall be comprised of the following Counties: Clay, Duval, Nassau, and St. Johns.
 - District 6. This District shall be comprised of the following Counties: Lake, Orange, Osceola, Seminole and Sumter.
 - District 7. This District shall be comprised of all of Polk County and that portion of Pasco County East of Interstate Highway 75 (The American Legion Highway).
 - District 8. This District shall be comprised of the following Counties: Sarasota, Manatee, Highlands, DeSoto and Hardee, and to include Post 113 Rotonda West.
 - District 9. This District shall be comprised of Broward County.
 - District 11. This District shall be comprised of the following Counties: Palm Beach, Okeechobee and Clewiston from Hendry County, Indiantown from Martin County and that part of Martin County south of the St. Lucie River.
 - District 12. This District shall be comprised of the following Counties: Brevard, Indian River, Martin (except Indiantown and that part of Martin County south of the St. Lucie River) and St. Lucie.
 - District 13. This District shall be comprised of the following Counties: Charlotte, Collier, Glades, Hendry (except Clewiston) and Lee, with the exception of Post 113 Rotonda West.
 - District 14. This District shall be comprised of Miami-Dade County and Monroe County.
 - District 15. This District shall be comprised of all of Hillsborough County, that portion of Pasco County, except New Port Richey, Hudson, Holiday and Seven Springs West of Interstate 75, (The American Legion Highway), and all of Hernando County.

District 16. This District shall be comprised of all of Pinellas County and New Port Richey, Hudson, Holiday and Seven Springs from West Pasco County.

District 17. This District shall be comprised of the following Counties: Flagler, Putnam, and Volusia.

2. There shall be a District Commander, District First Vice Commander and District Second Vice Commander from each District, elected at the District Constitutional Conference provided in Section 8 of this Article. Their election shall be ratified at the next Annual Department Convention. The Convention may vote for ratification of all elected District Officers at one time in the absence of objection. Such officers shall be members in good standing in a Post in the District in which they are respectively elected. They shall take office at the same time as the Department Commander.

3. When a vacancy in the office of District Commander occurs in any District, the Department Commander shall appoint their successor as provided in Article VII, Section 9, of this Constitution.

4. The Department Commander or the District Commanders within their respective Districts, shall have the power to call Conferences of Posts at such times as they may deem advisable; provided, however, that at least ten (10) days notice of such Conference shall be given in writing to the Posts. The District Commander shall hold a meeting of the Posts of their District at least quarterly for the purpose of discussing programs, membership and overall communications.

5. No District Conference shall have the right to take any legislative action or to bind the Department Officers, Area Commanders, or District Officers by any such action taken, and any action taken in this conference shall be considered as merely advisory.

6. Each delegate to a District Conference shall be entitled to one (1) vote. No delegate or alternate shall be accredited without proper certificate signed by the Commander and Adjutant of the Post represented by such delegate. No registration or meal fee can be collected as a prerequisite for attending or voting.

7. In addition to any other conference that may be held in a District, there shall be held a Constitutional Conference not more than sixty (60) nor less than ten (10) days prior to the date of the Annual Department Convention, at a time and place to be designated by the District Commander, under the same regulations prescribed for conferences as set forth in Sections 4, 5, 6, and 7 of this Article.

8. District Constitutional Conferences shall be composed of delegates and alternates from each chartered Post in the District. Each Post shall be entitled to two (2) delegates and two (2) alternates, and to one (1) additional delegate and alternate for each additional one hundred (100) members or fraction thereof over and above the one hundred (100) members provided the per capita membership has been received by either Department or National Headquarters ten (10) days prior to the District Constitutional Conference. Alternate delegates shall be recognized in the numerical order certified. The Department Adjutant shall publish to the Posts and District Commanders, a bulletin listing the official voting strength of each Post not later than five (5) days prior to the District Constitutional Conference.

9. At the District Constitutional Conference, there shall be nominated one (1) delegate and one (1) alternate to the National Convention for each one thousand (1000) members or major fraction thereof in the District, to serve for the term of one (1) year, when ratified and confirmed by the Annual Department Convention. Alternate delegates shall be recognized in the numerical order certified.

10. The District Commander shall, within five (5) days after adjournment of the District Constitutional Conference, forward to the Department Adjutant, a certified copy of the name and address of the District Commander and the District Vice Commanders elected, and the delegates and alternates to the National Convention nominated at the District Constitutional Conference.

11. Thirty percent (30%) of the Posts in a District, represented by duly designated delegates, shall constitute a quorum at the District Constitutional Conference.

12. District Caps, (blue with white top) may be worn during the term of office only by the following elected and appointed District officers: District Commanders, District Vice Commanders, District Adjutant, District Assistant Adjutant, District Finance Officer, District Judge Advocate, District Service Officer, District Sergeant-At-Arms, District Assistant Sergeant-At-Arms, District Chaplain and District Historian.

13. Each District in the Department of Florida is authorized to have its own Constitution and By-Laws, provided that it shall not conflict with the National Constitution and By-Laws nor the Department of Florida Constitution and By-Laws. The District Constitution and By-Laws, together with any subsequent amendments, shall be approved by the Department Judge Advocate or Department Assistant Judge Advocate, such approval confirmed by the Department Commander, a copy filed with the Department Adjutant's Office, and a Certification of Approval issued to the District before becoming effective. A District Constitution and By-Laws must meet the approval of two-thirds of the Posts in attendance at the District Constitutional Conference or at a Special Conference called by the District Commander for that purpose. Each Post must be given 45 days notice of a Special Conference for any purpose.

14. The District Commander of each District shall have the authority to establish committees and appoint Chairpersons for those committees. At a minimum, each District should establish a Boys State Committee, Oratorical Committee, Baseball Committee, and an American Legion Riders Advisory Committee.

15. In the event that any District Officer shall absent themselves from the State of Florida for a period exceeding sixty (60) days, they shall submit their resignation from such office within a reasonable time after they depart from the state, and upon their failure or refusal to do so, such office shall be declared vacant and the vacancy filled, as provided in Article VII, Section 9, of this Constitution.

16. District Officers shall be subject to trial, discipline, suspension, removal from office, or expulsion, as provided in the Department By-Laws.

ARTICLE X POST ORGANIZATION

1. The local unit shall be termed the Post, and shall have a minimum of fifteen (15) members.

2. No Post shall be chartered into this Department until it shall have received its Temporary Charter. Those who desire to form a Post shall make application for a Temporary Charter to the Department Commander. A Temporary Charter may be issued by the National Commander or National Adjutant upon receipt of a properly executed application by the charter members of the projected Post, and only when such application has been approved by the Department Commander or by the Department Executive Committee. A temporary charter shall state that it is granted on the recommendation of the Department and on the following terms and conditions:

(a) The temporarily chartered Post shall uphold the declared principles of The American Legion and shall conform to and abide by the regulations and decisions of the Department and of the National Executive Committee, or other duly constituted National Governing Body of The American Legion.

(b) This temporary charter is subject to revocation by the National Executive Committee on the recommendation of the Department, or by such authority that may hereafter be established by the National Convention.

(c) After a temporary charter has been in effect for a probationary period of at least ninety (90) days and not more than one (1) year, application for a permanent charter may be made. The Department Executive Committee shall determine whether or not a permanent charter shall be issued or denied and the action of the Department is final.

(e) Request for a temporary charter shall be cleared by the District and Area Commanders prior to being sent to Department.

3. No person may be a member at any one time of more than one Post.

4. Each Post shall be the judge of the qualification of its members, provided such members are eligible for membership in The American Legion.

5. No person who has been expelled by a Post shall be admitted to membership in another Post without consent of the expelling Post, except that where such consent has been asked for and denied by the expelling Post, such person may then appeal to the Department Executive Committee for permission to apply for membership in another Post, and shall be ineligible for membership until such permission is granted.

6. No Post shall bear the name of any living person.

7. A Post may change its name upon application to and approval by the Department Executive Committee.

8. A charter may be suspended or revoked by the Department Executive Committee for the reasons and in the manner provided in Article VII, Section 12 hereof.

9. Area of Post activities:

(a) Where more than one Post is chartered for a municipality or other political subdivision, a division of territory shall be so arranged by the said Posts so that there shall be no overlapping of service areas. If the Posts are unable to agree on division of territory, the division shall be made by the District Commander, subject to appeal to the Department Executive Committee. The District Commander shall have the authority to change and rearrange the boundaries of the area of Post responsibility should it be determined that Legion programs would be enhanced by such rearrangement, provided, however, that before any new boundaries become effective, the Post or Posts involved shall have the right to appeal such rearrangement of boundaries to the Department Executive Committee.

(b) When any area, municipality or other political subdivision is not properly covered by activities of The American Legion as evidenced by statistics indicating a large pool of eligible non-member veterans, by lack of reported American Legion activities or by such other facts as may come to the attention of the District Commander, the District Commander shall be permitted to initiate actions to charter a new Post within such area, or to rearrange areas of responsibility for activities of The American Legion for Posts in or near such areas.

I(c) In order to maintain a charter, each Post in the Department of Florida shall participate in at least one recognized program of The American Legion each year and maintain a minimum of fifteen (15) members.

10. Each Post in the Department of Florida shall have its own Constitution and By-Laws, provided that it shall not conflict with the National Constitution and By-Laws and the Constitution and By-Laws of the Department of Florida. The Post Constitution and By-Laws, together with any subsequent Amendments, shall be approved by the Department Judge Advocate or Department Assistant Judge Advocate, such approval confirmed by the Department Commander, and a copy filed with the Department Adjutant's office, with Certification of Approval issued to the Post before becoming effective.

11. The local Post shall be officered by the following officers who shall be elected annually by the Post:

- Post Vice-Commanders-(as many as may be necessary).
- Post Finance Officer
- Post Sergeant-At-Arms
- Post Chaplain

The Post Adjutant, Post Service Officer, and Post Judge Advocate shall be appointed by the Post Commander (elect). Their names shall be placed before the Post or the Post Executive Committee as the Post Constitution and By-Laws shall provide, at the first meeting following their appointment, for confirmation by a majority of the members present.

12. All officers of Posts, except the Post Adjutant, Post Service Officer and Post Judge Advocate, shall be elected and certified to the Department Adjutant, not more than ninety (90) days, nor less than ten (10) days prior to the Annual Department Convention, certification to be made on forms furnished or prescribed by the Department Adjutant. Post Officers shall be installed by the District Commander or their designated representative. Post Officers shall take office and enter upon their duties at a date to be fixed by the Post, which date shall be subsequent to, but not later than sixty (60) days after the adjournment of the Annual Department Convention, unless waived in writing by the incoming District Commander. In the event of a vacancy caused by the death, resignation or removal from office, the name and address of the successor shall be reported to the Department Adjutant within one (1) week after such vacancy has been filled. No Post officer shall assume office prior to providing the Post Adjutant with proof of eligibility for membership in The American Legion.

13. Members or Post Officers may be reprimanded, removed from office, suspended or expelled from The American Legion only upon proper showing of cause. Charges shall be based upon disloyalty, neglect of duty, dishonesty and/or conduct unbecoming a member of The American Legion. Charges must be made under oath, and in writing, by the accuser(s), and no member or Post Officer shall lose their membership or office until given a fair trial. Any Post that conducts disciplinary proceedings through a trial must notify the District Commander at least ten (10) days in advance of the trial, providing the date, time and location where the trial is to be held. The District Commander shall detail a District Officer to attend the trial as an observer. The decision at trial may be an acquittal, reprimand, suspension, expulsion or, in the case of an Officer removal from office, and shall be reported to the Post forthwith and acted upon by the Post at its next regular meeting. The Post, except for a decision of acquittal, may affirm, modify or reverse any decision of the trial. The procedures and rules controlling the bringing of charges and a trial, shall be as set forth by the Department Executive Committee in that document entitled Rules Governing Trials.

14. Any member or Post Officer who has been removed from office, has had their membership suspended, or have been expelled from The American Legion shall have the right to appeal to the Department Executive Committee, provided however, that no factual determinations made by the trier of fact shall be disturbed or set aside by the Department Executive Committee. The procedure and rules governing an appeal are as set forth by the Department Executive Committee in that document entitled Rules Governing Appeals. A Notice of Appeal must be received by the Department Adjutant within forty-five (45) days of final action by the Post initiating the trial or any right to appeal is waived. If no appeal is made, the final action of the Post shall become binding. The decision of the Department Executive Committee on any appeal shall be final. The provisions of Sections 13 and 14 do not apply to disciplinary procedures carried out in compliance with any state or local law, not affecting the right of the member to attend Legion Meetings.

15. Any member in good standing may transfer to another Post willing to accept them, subject to the provisions of Article X, Section 5 of this Constitution, with the exception of a member who has been brought up on charges by the Post they wish to transfer from. If the transfer is initiated prior to the charges being filed, the member can transfer under Article IV, Sections 1, 2 and 3 of the National By-Laws. If the transfer is initiated after the charges are filed, the transfer is null and void and the discipline hearing may proceed if the Post so desires. The transfer shall be effective upon processing in the National database.

16. Any Post in this Department shall have full power and authority to drop from the membership roll the name of any member not paying their annual dues, as provided in the National Constitution and By-Laws.

17. Each Post shall use and follow the current edition of The American Legion Post Officer's Guide and Manual of Ceremonies in conducting its meetings, initiation of members and other ceremonies prescribed therein.

19. (a) No Post of the Department of Florida shall sell or otherwise dispose of any real property (real estate) without first obtaining the written consent of the Department Commander. The request to dispose of Post real property must be presented to The American Legion, Department of Florida, NOT LESS than thirty (30) days prior to such sale or disposal and must state that all members of the Post have been given written notice, of the proposed sale/disposal via certified mail, return receipt requested, or other verifiable correspondence. Written notice must include the place, date and time of meeting where the proposed sale of Post property will be discussed and voted upon. Notice must be sent to all active current and previous year Post members no less than thirty (30) days prior to the meeting. If a Post is financially unable to contact each member through verifiable correspondence, the Department will assist in contacting the Post members. Each Post shall provide The American Legion, Department of Florida with the minutes from the meeting in which the Post membership voted to sell the property, duly executed by the Post Commander and Adjutant, and in a form suitable to the Department. The Department Adjutant shall cause the written consent of the Department Commander to be recorded in the official records of the County wherein the real property is located.

(b) Upon a Post purchasing a parcel of real property the Post shall cause the following language to be inserted into the deed for the real property before the deed is recorded into the public records: Article X Section 19 of the Constitution of The American Legion, Department of Florida requires all American Legion Posts within the State of Florida, prior to transferring a parcel of real property, to 1. Provide written notice to all members of the Post who are in good standing, and 2. Obtain written consent for the transfer of the real property from the Department Commander.

20. Each Post shall make reports to the membership of the Post at least once a month, concerning the status of all financial activities and all facilities of the Post. Such report shall include, but is not limited to total income, cost of sales, expenses, accounts receivable, accounts payable, inventory, a profit and loss statement, any agreement concerning use of facilities and any other information necessary to provide the membership with sufficient information to make decisions concerning Post activities and facilities.

ARTICLE XI FINANCE

1. The revenue of The American Legion, Department of Florida, shall be derived from annual membership dues and from such other sources as may be approved by the Department Executive Committee.

2. The amount of such annual dues shall be determined by the Annual Department Convention and remain in effect until changed by action of a subsequent Annual Department Convention.

3. The annual dues, both National and Department, shall be collected by each Post and transmitted within thirty (30) days after receipt to the Department Headquarters or National Headquarters, as appropriate.
4. The failure on the part of any Post to transmit collected dues within thirty (30) days, as specified above, shall be cause for the suspension or revocation of the charter of the Post.
5. All Department Officers responsible for National or Department funds shall furnish adequate bonds conditioned for the faithful performance of their duties. Said bonds shall be made and deposited as the Department By-Laws provide.
6. The fiscal year of the Department shall be July 1 to June 30, each date inclusive.
7. There shall be a Financial Review of the finances, accounts, property and business affairs of the Department made at least once annually, and at such other times as the By-Laws provide. The Financial Review shall be made by a Certified Public Accountant retained by the Department Finance Officer in consultation with the Department Finance Committee and the approval of the Department Executive Committee. The Department Finance Director (a Department Full-Time employee) shall have on file at all times receipted bills, or vouchers covering all expenditures of the Department. Such records shall be available at any time for examination by the Department Commander, Department Adjutant, Department Finance Officer, members of the Finance Committee, or members of the Department Executive Committee. A report of the Financial Review or the annual financial audit shall be made at the next Department Executive Committee meeting, the Annual Department Convention, and the year-end Department Finance Committee meeting.
8. No Post with past due accounts owing to the Department and unsettled fifteen (15) days before convening of the Annual Department Convention shall be entitled to seat their Post delegation in that Convention.
9. No member, officer, or committee of the Department shall have authority to bind the Department by contract or incur any obligation upon its behalf, except by express authority of a Department Convention or the Department Executive Committee.
10. All contracts entered into on behalf of the Department shall be in writing, executed by the Department Commander and evidenced by the Department's corporate seal which shall be affixed by the Department Adjutant and attested by their signature.
11. The Department Membership List, contract information, or similar databases maintained by Department are property of the Department over which the Department Finance Committee has the right to examine.
12. The Annual Department Convention may establish special funds or accounts which shall be maintained and invested as provided for in the By-Laws, or as directed by the Annual Department Convention. If no instruction as to investment was made by the Annual Department Convention or the By-Laws, then the Department Executive Committee may instruct how the funds are to be invested. No withdrawals from, or reinvestment of such monies shall be made except by like authority.
13. The Department Commander shall immediately after being installed appoint a member to the Department Finance Committee. Additionally, the Commander shall appoint as Chairperson of that Committee, a person with prior Finance Committee Experience, to be ratified by the Department Executive Committee, to take office immediately. The individuals appointed to the Finance Committee, shall have professional experience and qualifications commensurate with the appointment to this important Committee, such as a Corporate Chief Executive Officer or Chief Finance Officer, Accounting or Finance, Entrepreneur or Senior Management. A three-person committee consisting of the Department Adjutant, Department Finance Officer, and the current Department Finance Committee Chairperson shall interview all applicants to ensure their eligibility and present their recommendations to the Department Commander. The Department Commander will select their appointee to the Department Finance Committee from this pool of applicants. The Department Commander and the Department Adjutant shall be ex-officio non-voting members of the Finance Committee, and the Department Adjutant shall be ex-officio secretary of Finance Committee. Between sessions of the Department Executive Committee, the Department Commander may fill vacancies of the Department Finance Committee subject to ratification by the Department Executive Committee at its next meeting. The Department Finance Committee shall have such powers and perform such duties as provided in this Constitution and in the Department By-Laws or by the Department Convention, or by the Department Executive Committee if the Department Convention is not in session in matters not covered by the Department Constitution and By-Laws.

They shall enjoy the status and the privileges thereof as set forth in these By-Laws and the Department Constitution unless they are deprived of them as provided herein and in the Department Constitution.

ARTICLE II

DEPARTMENT EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

1. In addition to the meetings required by the Department Constitution, the Department Executive Committee shall meet on call of the Department Commander or on written request of a majority of the voting members of the Department Executive Committee. It shall also meet within the time and for the purposes provided in Section 5 of this Article. In event the Department Commander refuses or fails for five (5) days to call the Department Executive Committee to meet on the written request of a majority of the voting members of the Department Executive Committee or for the purpose provided in Section 5 hereof, or in accordance with provisions of the Department Constitution, the Department Adjutant shall call the Department Executive Committee to meet.
2. No business shall be transacted at any special meeting of the Department Executive Committee except as shall be specifically stated in the call or as amended during agenda approval or business of a routine nature which may be proper to come before the meeting.
3. The Department Commander, or in their absence or inability, the Department Vice Commander shall preside over the Department Executive Committee. The Department Adjutant shall act as Secretary of the meeting, and in their absence or inability, the Chairperson of the meeting shall appoint some member of the Committee to serve as Secretary of the meeting.
4. Subject to the Department Constitution, the Department Executive Committee shall fill any vacancy in the membership of the Department Executive Committee for the remainder of the term.
5. Department Officers, Area Commanders, and District Commanders and District Vice Commanders may be reprimanded, suspended, removed from office, or expelled from The American Legion on charges based upon disloyalty to The American Legion or the National Government, neglect of duties, dishonesty, and/or conduct unbecoming a member or officer of The American Legion. All charges shall be made in writing by an accuser(s), and no officer shall be reprimanded, suspended, removed from office, or expelled from The American Legion until given a fair trial. The charge(s) shall be filed forthwith at Department Headquarters and shall be referred to the Department Executive Committee by the senior qualified Department Officer not under charge. A copy of the charge(s) shall be served on the accused officer. Within thirty (30) days thereafter, the Department Executive Committee shall convene in special session on call of the senior qualified Department officer not under charge and shall try the charge(s) against the accused officer. The accused officer shall have the right to appear in person and defend themselves and may be represented by any member of The American Legion, Department of Florida, in good standing or a Florida licensed attorney, or both, as counsel. The Department Assistant Judge Advocate, if available and qualified, shall prosecute the charge(s), and if the Department Assistant Judge Advocate is unavailable or fails to act or is disqualified, the senior qualified Department Officer not under charge shall appoint a member of the Department to prosecute the charge(s). The Department Judge Advocate shall preside over any such trial or hearing related thereto. Should the Department Judge Advocate not be available or otherwise unable to serve in this role, then the senior qualified Department Officer not under charge shall appoint a member of the Department to preside over the trial or related hearings. The decision of the Department Executive Committee may be acquittal, reprimand, removal from office, suspension, or expulsion from The American Legion, and shall be reported to the next Annual Department Convention. The Annual Department Convention, except in the case of an acquittal by the Department Executive Committee, may affirm, modify, or revoke the finding and sentence of the Department Executive Committee. The Annual Department Convention shall conduct its hearing upon the transcribed testimony heard by the Department Executive Committee or oral testimony, or both. In case of acquittal, the decision of the Department Executive Committee shall be final, and its decision in any event shall be final unless written appeal be made to the Annual Department Convention within forty-five (45) days, and in event of appeal to the Annual Department Convention, its decision shall be final. Pending the appeal from a conviction, the convicted officer shall not act in any official capacity as a member of The American Legion, Department of Florida.

6. Department Officers, Area Commanders, District Commanders, or District Vice Commanders shall not be suspended or removed, or the suspension or removal of Post Officers affirmed on appeal, except by the affirmative vote of 60% or more of the voting members of the Department Executive Committee present. The vote shall be by roll call, and no member shall pass except for personal reasons acceptable to a majority of the voting members of the Department Executive Committee present.

7. The Department Executive Committee shall sit in executive session in trials of Department Officers, Area Commanders, District Commanders, or District Vice Commanders, and on appeals from Post trials.

8. The Department Executive Committee shall not be polled or vote by telephone, electronic communication or by mail on any question properly requiring exchange of views and deliberative action, such as elections, trials of Department Officers, Area Commanders, District Commanders, or District Vice Commanders, appeals from Posts with respect to Post officers and members, elections of officers, questions of policy and legislative matters, employment and compensation of Department Officers and employees or filling vacancies on a Committee or in Department Offices caused by death or resignation or the disbursement or appropriation of money. The Department Commander may poll the voting members of the Department Executive Committee by mail, electronic communication or telephone in case of emergency or any routine administrative matter, or for their guidance or for its concurrence in or ratification of some act within their powers and functions, but no such poll shall be tabulated and made effective earlier than sixty (60) hours from the time of such call, which shall be simultaneously issued to all members of the Department Executive Committee. If ten (10) voting members protest the poll and lodge their protests by telephone, electronic communication, or by mail with the Department Adjutant prior to the effective time of such poll, the same shall be null and void. In all events, the members of the Department Executive Committee shall be promptly advised by mail or email of the results of the poll.

9. The proceedings of the meeting shall be recorded electronically and thereafter the pertinent portions thereof shall be transcribed by a typist employed by the Department. The pertinent portions, shall be selected by the Officer who presided at the meeting and the Department Adjutant, and shall be transcribed as soon as practicable after such meeting of the Department Executive Committee, a brief synopsis of the proceedings of the meeting shall be sent to each Post in the Department and to each member of the Executive Committee.

10. In its deliberations, the Department Executive Committee shall be governed by these By-Laws and the Department Constitution, and as to all questions not covered by the Department's Constitution or Department By-Laws shall be governed by Roberts' Rules of Order, Revised.

ARTICLE III DEPARTMENT COMMISSIONS AND COMMITTEES

1. (a) The following Commissions will be organized, as set forth below, to carry out the programs of The American Legion; National Security Commission, Americanism Commission, Veterans Affairs and Rehabilitation Commission, Children and Youth Commission and Internal Affairs Commission.

(b) Each of such Commissions shall consist of a Chairperson who shall be appointed by the Department Commander with the approval of the Department Executive Committee and six additional members, each of which shall be appointed by an Area Commander from their Area. Each Commission shall act under the immediate administrative direction of its Chairperson, and shall meet and organize on call of the Department Commander. (This specific provision shall take effect at the Annual Department Convention to be held in 2024). A member's term shall be for a period of one (1) year.

7. (a) Each Committee shall consist of a Chairperson, who shall have full authority to transact the business of and act for the Committee, subject only to the supervision and direction of the applicable Commission, the Department Commander and the Department Executive Committee.

If an appointment is made by a Department Commander at a time when the Department Executive Committee is not in session, the appointee shall serve until the next meeting of the Department Executive Committee and thereafter during the term for which appointed, unless the appointment be specifically disapproved at such meeting by the Department Executive Committee or unless removed by the Department Commander. The proposed District appointments for the ensuing year shall be certified to the Department Adjutant as a prerequisite to the installation of the District Commander, and a bulletin shall be mailed to all the Posts by the Department Adjutant, as soon as practicable, listing the names and contact information of the Chairperson and members of the District Committees.

(b) Each member of a standing committee (Department, Areas, Districts, and Posts) shall take office at the same time as the Department Commander, Area Commander, District Commander, or Post Commander, respectively, and shall serve until their successor is qualified; provided, however, that the Department Commander may direct the specific dates of the commencement and termination of any Committee appointment and the Post Commander may direct the specific dates of commencement and termination of any Committee appointment in their Post.

8. All committees shall faithfully perform their duties, keep records of their acts, and report the same to their respective Commissions, or if so required, to the Department Executive Committee, Department Commander, or Department Convention. The Commissions shall report fully to the Department Executive Committee and Department Commander prior to the Annual Department Convention, and at such other times as may be required.

9. The Department Commander may, from time to time, appoint such special committees of the Department as necessary; and they shall appoint such special committees as either the Department Convention or the Department Executive Committee may authorize or direct.

10. The Department Commander shall appoint, subject to ratification by the Department Executive Committee, a Department Religious Emphasis Committee to be composed of five (5) members, of which the Department Chaplain shall be Chairman, and the immediate Past Department Chaplain, Vice-Chairman. One (1) additional member shall be appointed for a full three (3) year term, or until removed by a majority vote of the Department Executive Committee. Between sessions of the Department Executive Committee, the Department Commander may fill vacancies on the Department Religious Emphasis Committee, subject to ratification by the Department Executive Committee at its next meeting. The Department Religious Emphasis Committee shall have such powers and perform such duties as shall be prescribed by the Department Executive Committee, or by the Department Constitution and By-Laws, or by action of the Department Convention.

11. The Department Finance Committee shall consist of five (5) members, each with a staggered term of five (5) years. The Department Commander shall appoint, with the approval of the Department Executive Committee, one (1) member as the Chairperson.

12. The Time and Place Committee shall consist of five (5) members, each with a staggered term of five (5) years. ARTICLE VI INVESTIGATIONS

1. The Department Commander may initiate actions to ensure that improper management, dishonesty, conflicts of personalities, malfeasance, misfeasance, nonfeasance, or any other factors do not jeopardize the continued existence of any Post in the Department of Florida. These actions may include but are not limited to, the following:

(a) Directing the District Commander in which a Post is located to conduct a preliminary investigation into the affairs of the Post and to act, if possible, as a mediator if they determine that the problem is primarily one of a conflict in personalities. Should the Department Commander decide that there may be some cogent reason to use some other individual to conduct the initial investigation/mediation, they shall, in consultation with the Area Commander in which the Post is located, detail some other member of the Department to conduct the initial investigation/mediation. A report of such investigation, including recommendations for further actions by officials of the Department, shall be rendered to the Department Commander.

(b) If the initial investigation/mediation does not result in a solution to the problem, the Department Commander, after consultation with the Chairperson of the Internal Affairs Commission, shall appoint a member of that Commission not from the same District as the Post involved, to conduct a further investigation into the affairs of the Post and to act, if possible, as a mediator if they should feel that mediation could be successful. A report of such investigation, including recommendations for further actions by the Department, shall be rendered to the Department Commander as soon as practicable.

(c) Based on this report, the Department Commander may detail accountants or auditors to investigate financial problems further. Should such further investigations reveal conditions that could jeopardize the continued existence of the Post, the Department Commander, with the advice of the Department Executive Committee or the Finance Committee when the Department Executive Committee is not in session, shall advise the Post officers to take actions to ensure these conditions are alleviated, and if the Post officers are unable or refuse to comply with these directions, shall detail a Past Department Commander, in conjunction with the District Commander in which the Post is located, to take these actions providing specific detailed guidance for management of all of the affairs of the Post if required. In this event, every effort shall be made by the Past Department Commander and the District Commander to return complete control to the regular officers of the Post at the earliest opportunity if it is determined that such return of control is in the best interest of the Post and Department.

(d) The Post involved shall be responsible for the cost of the investigations detailed above, including travel expenses, lodging, and other expenses for the investigator(s), auditor(s), accountant(s) or other personnel.

ARTICLE VII AMENDMENTS

1. These By-Laws may be amended and changed at any Department Convention by two-thirds vote; all changes and amendments must be in writing. No amendments to these By-Laws shall be made except as detailed in Section 2 of this Article, unless a copy of such proposed amendments shall be typewritten, prepared in triplicate on forms supplied by Department Headquarters, be submitted, at least forty (40) days prior to the date of the Department Annual Convention, to the Department Adjutant, who shall send a copy thereof to each Post in the Department at least thirty (30) days prior to the Annual Department Convention. Only a Post, Department Executive Committee, or the Department Standing Committee on Constitution and By-Laws may submit a proposed amendment to these By-Laws.

2. Amendments to these By-Laws proposed at the Annual Department Convention, of which notice required by Section 1 of this Article has not been given shall be considered by the Convention only by unanimous consent of all delegates present at the Convention is obtained.

RULES GOVERNING TRIALS

These rules shall govern any and all trials held by The American Legion, Department of Florida or any Post within The American Legion, Department of Florida.

1. Any disciplinary action where the potential punishment is suspension or expulsion from The American Legion, or in the case of an Officer, the removal from office, against any Member or Officer shall be upon sworn or verified written charges by the accuser(s).

2. Said sworn or verified written charges shall be filed with the Adjutant of the Convening Authority.

3. A copy of the sworn or verified written charges shall be served upon the accused, either in person or by certified mail with proof thereof by a return receipt.

4. The Adjutant of the Convening Authority shall cause to be served upon the accused, in the same manner as above mentioned, a Summons for the accused to appear on a specified date, time, and location for a trial. The trial shall be held at the next regularly scheduled Post Meeting after fifteen (15) days have lapsed from the time of service of the charges upon the accused.

5. The accuser(s) must be a member(s) of the same Post as the accused and shall set forth the charges of disloyalty, neglect of duty, dishonesty, and/or conduct unbecoming a Member of The American Legion in terms whereby the accused shall be able to determine what conduct is being complained of, which shall at a minimum, include the date, time, place, and the details of the offensive conduct, in order that the accused may properly prepare a defense.

6. The accused may appear at the trial in person, through written answer, or with counsel. Counsel may be a member of The American Legion or a licensed attorney.

7. Either the Convening Authority or the accused may apply for a continuance before the day of the trial. However, such a request must be in writing, show just cause for said request, and be sworn to by the moving party. The presiding Judge Advocate shall rule on any such motion filed.

8. The Judge Advocate of the Convening Authority shall preside at the trial and shall have the power and authority to pass upon the materiality and relevancy of any evidence presented, and shall have general power to prescribe the necessary and reasonable rules and regulations for the orderly procedure of said trial.

10. At any time before the trial commences, the charges may be amended. However, if the charges are amended the accused must be served with the amended charges and allowed fourteen (14) days before the trial can commence at a regularly scheduled Post Meeting.

11. The entire trial including all votes taken, will be conducted by the Post Judge Advocate or a Judge Advocate appointed by the Department Commander.

12. At the regularly scheduled Post Meeting, where a quorum is present, the trial is the first order of business. Prior to the start of the trial, the membership will need to determine if the votes to determine guilty/not guilty and any other punishment be taken viva voce (by voice) or by ballot.

13. Only the Post members in good standing sitting in attendance at the regularly scheduled Post Meeting will be the jury to hear the trial.

14. The start of the trial shall be the reading of the charges in front of the membership.

15. All testimony of witnesses must be taken under oath. The accused shall have the right to confront and cross examine any witnesses against him or her. No written statements, whether sworn or not, shall be admitted into evidence if the person who wrote the statement is not present to confront and be cross examined by the accused or counsel. The accused shall be allowed to speak in his/her own defense, if he/she so desires.

16. Either the Convening Authority or the accused shall have the right to have the trial and associated proceedings recorded by tape, video, or court reporter. The Post which arranges for the recording/reporting of the trial shall be responsible for any cost associated therewith.

17. Once the witnesses have been heard and the accused has been heard (if desired), the accused shall retire from the meeting room and the Post members present shall proceed at once, and without debate, to vote on the guilt or innocence of the accused, taking a separate vote on each charge.

18. If the accused is found guilty by a majority vote of the members present and voting, a second vote will be taken to determine if the accused will be permanently expelled from The American Legion, suspended from The American Legion or a lesser punishment as determined by a majority vote. In no case shall a member be permitted to vote who was not present at the commencement and during the entire progress of the trial. Expulsion means no longer eligible to be a member of The American Legion (requires a 67% affirmative vote from members present). Suspension means suspended from The American Legion for a maximum of the remainder of the current membership year and one additional membership year. A not guilty verdict dictates no punishment.

19. Such decision at the general membership meeting of the Post shall be binding upon the accused and the Post unless the accused, within forty-five (45) days from such decision, appeals to The American Legion, Department of Florida. Any appeal, including filing deadlines, shall be governed by those rules enacted by the Department Executive Committee entitled "Rules Governing Appeals."

20. In the event of a conflict between these Rules and either the Constitution or By-Laws of The American Legion, Department of Florida, the Constitution and/or By-Laws shall be controlling.

RULES GOVERNING APPEALS

Any appeal taken from a trial held within the jurisdiction of The American Legion, Department of Florida shall be governed by these rules.

1. A Notice of Appeal, in accordance with the attached form entitled "Notice of Appeal" must be received within forty-five (45) days of the final action of the Convening Authority or any appeal is waived.
